DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On September 21, 2018, Maritza Serrano filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a SIRVA resulting from adverse effects of an influenza vaccination received on October 21, 2015. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 21, 2020, Respondent filed a joint Rule 4(c) report and proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”). On April 24, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. The April 21, 2020 Proffer indicated that Petitioner should be awarded $107,500.00. Proffer at 3. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $107,500.00 in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
